Motion to Pay Mr. Cloud a Fair Amount for his Fundraising Services.

Whereas, Mr. Cloud first disclosed to the National Committee on July 15, 2012 his intention to become a vendor to the Party;

Whereas, in violation of LNC Policy no written agreement with Mr. Cloud was crafted, reviewed by General Counsel or signed by the Chairman detailing the terms and conditions of the vendor relationship between Mr. Cloud and the Party;

Whereas, LNC Policy is that no LNC Member, Party officer or employee "shall transact business with the Party unless the transaction is fair and equitable to the Party;"

Whereas, the Party desires to pay Mr. Cloud an amount that is fair and equitable to the Party; Whereas, the Party, in keeping with Mr. Cloud's commitment on July 15, 2012 to provide services at "Walmart rates, rather than Neiman Marcus" rates, finds it reasonable to set a rate of pay at the lower end of the range for a freelance writer;

Whereas, Mr. Cloud's billings to the Party in the amount of $38,800 for his services is not fair and equitable to the Party; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Libertarian National Committee finds that Mr. Cloud performed no more than 100 hours of work as a vendor at a fair rate of $50 per hour (or $5,000 total);

Resolved, That Mr. Cloud owes the Libertarian National Committee $33,800, and

Also, in answer to a question from Mr. Tomasso, Mr. Sinawski said litigation in Connecticut was still being planned.

Whereas, LNC Policy requires that the Chair or Treasurer approve (and evidence by signing or initialing) all expenses and expense account reimbursements more than $200 made to the Executive Director or other officers prior to payment, and such approval was not obtained; and

Whereas, Ms. Howell has only repaid $1,800 of this amount to the Libertarian National Committee; now, therefore be it

Ordered, that Robert Kraus and the Audit Committee be notified of this decision so that appropriate adjustments be made to the 2012 financial statements.

Whereas, the Party also paid $565.40 for airfare that Ms. Howell states is not related to her employment agreement, but that she may be able to substantiate as being employment related by presenting receipts, along with other supporting documentation; and

Whereas, LNC Policy requires that the Chair or Treasurer approve (and evidence by signing or initialing) all expenses and expense account reimbursements more than $200 made to the Executive Director or other officers prior to payment, and such approval was not obtained; now, therefore be it

Ordered, that Ms. Howell promptly repay $3,106.24 to the Libertarian National Committee, but allow her to reduce that amount by providing receipts and other documentation to the Audit Committee by December 31, 2013 to substantiate those expenses as employment related, provided the Chair or Treasurer also approve (and evidence by signing or initialing) such expenses; and

Ordered, that Robert Kraus and the Audit Committee be notified of this decision so that appropriate adjustments be made to the 2012 financial statements.

Mr. Cloud moved to delete the references to $565.40 for airfare but withdrew the motion.

Mr. Tomasso moved to amend the resolution to add "the commuting and moving expenses of"

to the second Whereas clause between "not related to" and "her employment agreement." The motion to amend passed. Thus, the amended resolution became:

Motion Addressing Ms. Howell's Moving & Commuting Expenses -- Expenses without Receipts.

Whereas, the Party reimbursed Ms. Howell $1,118.00 for expenses and Ms. Howell directed the Party to pay $1,422.84 directly to vendors for expenses, all of a nature allowed by her employment agreement, but without receipts (as detailed in an exhibit in the Audit Committee's Second Interim Report);

Chair's Report – December 7th & 8th, 2013 – Dallas, TX

As is always the case, much of what I do on an ongoing basis is routine, and not worth delineating absent a directive or policy to do so, so I won't burden or bore you.

Additionally, much of what I do will be covered in other reports, and I will leave reporting the progress and activities of others to others.

The two most significant highlights I would like to bring to everyone's attention are:

CPAC:

In September I spoke as part of a panel at a regional CPAC conference in St. Louis. The panel was titled "Can Social Conservatives and Libertarians Ever Get Along?". The moderator was Tom Minnery of CitizenLink, and the other two panelists were Matthew Spalding of the Heritage Foundation, and Doug Bandow of Cato. This panel was main floor and prime time. In fact, they even rearranged their agenda so that I could be present, since I had already booked a speaking engagement in Dallas for the evening.

I was fully expecting an "ambush" kind of event, but it really did not turn out that way. The questions were targeted and tough, but reasonable. The audience was receptive, and I got a lot of positive feedback from the attendees I talked with. Of course, I'm sure people who did not like the panel were inclined to avoid me, but that's how it goes.

On top of that, I was sought out and graciously thanked for my attendance by Al Cardenas, Chair of the American Conservative Union (ACU). I was made to feel welcome, and the experience was positive in every regard (well, not the flight, but I won't blame the ACU for that). I have independently been told that this same panel and topic is under consideration for inclusion in the national CPA conference. That would be good.

Europe:

I have tried to correspond with LP leaders for most of my term, and this led to an invitation to be a panelist at the Adam Smith Forum in Moscow. I also have spent a small amount of time conversing with the Partei der Vernunft (German LP) and the Partido de la Libertad Individual (Spanish LP) over the last few months. I decided to accept the invitation to be a panelist at the Moscow Forum, and was able to also work out an event with the P-Lib during the same trip.

I will not bore you with a huge travelogue.

The Adam Smith forum was attended by about 200 people. It comprised three panels of about three hours each with simultaneous translation back and forth between Russian and English. I was well received, met a lot of great people, and treated like royalty. One of the attendees was the chair of the Netherlands Libertarian Party – Toine Manders –a hard-core anarcho-capitalist. Of course the LP of Russia Chair was there too – Andrey Shalnev.

In Madrid, the P-Lib arranged a speech and dinner event which was attended by a packed house of 100, and many were turned away. Their Chair, Juan Pina, is the most organized libertarian I have ever met. I was overwhelmed by their professionalism. People flew or drove in from all over Spain, including from Mallorca. Additionally, there were attendees from libertarian from other countries, including Guy Montrose (UK Chair), Leonardo Facco (Italian Chair), and Uwe Schreoder (German Treasurer).

Four European LP's have joined together to create EPIL – European Party for Individual Liberty. Their intent is to run candidates for the European Parliament. At this event, we met and the consensus was that there was a need for a global libertarian political alliance. It was even suggested to hold the first formal meeting at our upcoming National Convention in Columbus, Ohio.

Since this trip took place, we have been notified that there now is a formal Libertarian Party of South Africa. Also, the Chair of the Brazilian Party asked me when I will be visiting them.

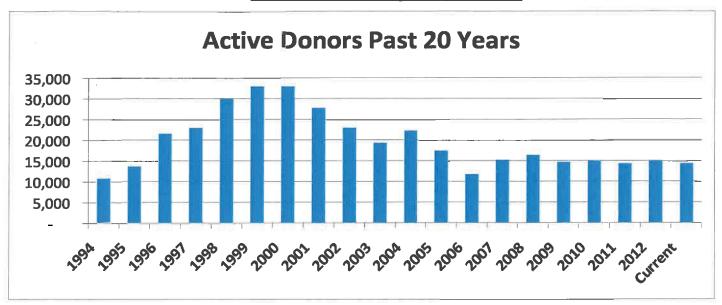

Libertarianism is growing worldwide, and these new parties look to us with respect and admiration. I hope we can live up to their expectations.

Policy Manual

I provided an updated version of the Policy Manual to the LNC on August 22, 2013. This version included the seven new policies from email ballots 2013-11 through 2013-17.

Conflicts of Interest

On September 29, 2013, Mr. Hagan reported that he was appointed Treasurer of the Libertarian Party of Nevada.

On September 30, 2013, Mr. Goldstein reported that he was appointed Campaign Manager for the Tatgenhorst for Secretary of State campaign in Indiana. The following day, Mr. Goldstein reported that he was no longer Chair of the Libertarian Party of Indiana.

These changes are included in the Conflict of Interest pages in the binder.

Minutes of Meetings

As has been pointed out, I have been tardy getting the official minutes of our meeting up on the website. I apologize for the delay. While the substance of the minutes has been generally approved with some minor corrections, I have been unable in several instances to get approval on non-substantive matters such as formatting, the correct use of honorifics, and so on. Dr. Lark has been most helpful in suggesting formatting improvements to the minutes, so I have asked him to assist me with preparing the minutes. He has graciously agreed.

There is some backlog of minutes to be posted, both of LNC meetings and Executive Committee meetings. The minutes themselves are largely complete except for the formatting issues. I expect that they can be posted up in relative short order, once I have a chunk of Dr. Lark's time.

The Chair or Treasurer shall be required to approve (and evidence by signing or initialing) all expenses and expense account reimbursements more thanin excess of $200 made to the Executive Director or other officers LNC members prior to payment or within thirty days of payment if the expenditure is incurred with a Party issued credit card. No advance shall be made. No officer shall approve his or her own expenses. To avoid possible hardship due to delays in such approvals, the Chair or the Treasurer may at his or her discretion authorize a permanent expense advance of up to $200 per individual, which shall be considered a draw against any reimbursable expenses incurred but not yet reimbursed. Any such advances so made shall be fully reflected on the Party financial statements and shall be repayable in full by the individual immediately upon termination of employment or ceasing to hold LNC office for any reason. Any exception to this policy must be approved in writing by the Chair.

Travel expenses incurred by officers for the explicit purpose of conducting Party business (excluding those incurred for the purpose of attending LNC meetings) may be reimbursed. Business travel expenses not pre-authorized by the LNC must be deemed necessary and approved in writing by the Chair to qualify for reimbursement.
