A fresh roll call was requested. There were no new attendees. The only additional absence was Alex Flores (Region 1 Alternate) though he re-entered the meeting at some point later.

Mr. Phillips announced that he needed to depart the meeting, and Mr. Bughman would be voting in his stead.

<sup>2</sup> There was confusion during this part of the meeting with a motion to postpone indefinitely made by Ms. Adams which was seconded which was never formally withdrawn but seems to have been implicitly withdrawn without objection. The Party Parliamentarian Richard Brown was consulted to answer questions about these types of motions and the effects thereof.

Mr. Moellman moved to postpone for fourteen (14) days until January 31, 2022, at 8pm Eastern.

Mr. Wilford moved to amend to postpone indefinitely.

Mr. Longstreth made a POINT OF ORDER that the Wilford amendment is an improper attempt to turn the original motion into an entirely different motion.

Mr. Wilford's motion was ruled OUT OF ORDER with the Chair stating the rationale as being the motion to postpone indefinitely is of a lower rank than the original motion and cannot be substituted for that motion.

Mr. Luchini moved to end debate on the main motion.

In response to a request by Mr. Smith that a motion be made and passed to censure the rest of the LNC for their handling of the Caryn Ann Harlos suspension motion which violated the exact same Policy Manual section that he is accused of violating in exchange for his acceptance of this censure, Ms. Bilyeu ruled that additional motions not specifically noticed for this special meeting were OUT OF ORDER. Mr. Smith APPEALED from the ruling of the Chair stating that he did in fact give notice of his intent to move such a censure.

Ms. Adams informed the LNC that she needed to step away temporarily and Ms. Vest would be voting in her stead.
